

Local art students capture awards

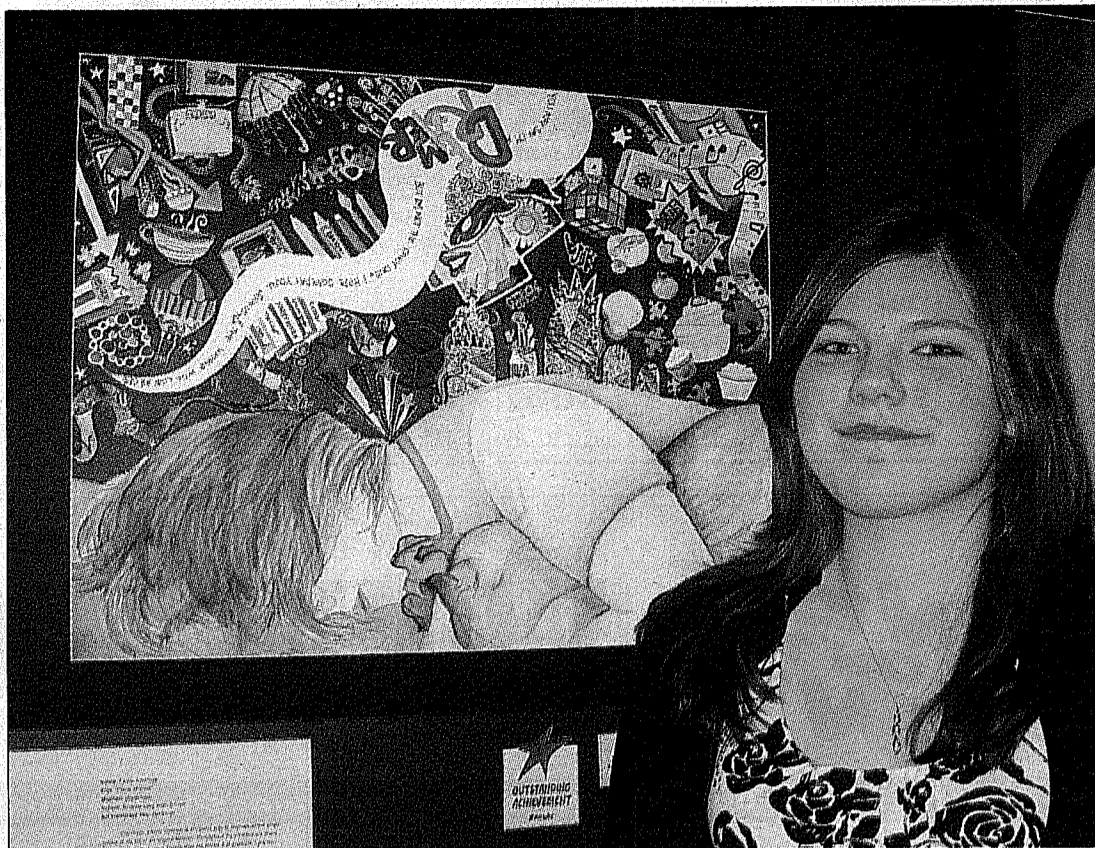

Students from Bonney Lake and Sumner high schools showed their artistic flair April 5 during the 2009 Regional High School Art Show, hosted by Puget Sound Educational Service District in Renton.

Recipients of the Pierce County Arts and Cultural Service awards included: Taylor Andringa, Bonney Lake High: Outstanding Achievement and Honorable Mention for her watercolor painting, "Piece of Mind"; Shellie Schultz, Sumner

High, Outstanding Achievement and Honorable Mention for her colored pencil design, "Three Musketeers"; Jeremy McPherson, Bonney Lake High, Pierce County Arts and Cultural Services award, for his graphite piece, "Spanaway"; Cydney Reed, Pierce County Arts and Cultural Service award, for her ceramic work, "Sea Vase"; and K. McGraw, Bonney Lake High, Outstanding Achievement Medium award, for her clay sculpture, "Emerging Koi."

Photo courtesy Puget Sound Educational Service District

Taylor Andringa, Bonney Lake High, with her water color, "Piece of Mind" at the Regional High School Art Show.

Courier Herald 4/22/09